

Video Visitation

The public doesn't have to wait in line or undergo searches in order to visit an inmate. Instead, citizens can call ahead and arrange for an appointment. When its time to visit, you simply show up at the Video Visitation Center across the street from the 33rd Street Jail Complex.

Operating 12 hours per day, this new system of visitation gives citizens more opportunity for visiting loved ones and friends who are in jail. The Video Visitation Center is open seven days a week from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. with the last visitation session starting at 9 p.m.

Attorneys and law enforcement officers who have a professional need to conduct an in-person, non-video visit, should contact the individual facility in which the inmate is incarcerated. For video visitation of Orange County Jail inmates contact the Visitation Center at 407-836-3400 at least 24 hours in advance.
